Laura,

I'm the founding member of the CINELadies. I'm so glad that you're enjoying the openness and participation of our group page. While I support active participation and expression on our page, your recent posts have been making several of the women in the group uncomfortable.

I'd like to share our mission statement with you: CINELadies is designed with encouragement in mind; we offer networking, leads, nurturing and support, with the goal of celebrating the female spirit in film, television and theatre.

We have women of different hair colors, races, orientations and goals in our group (including reality TV actors). It would be appreciated if any bashing of other people in the industry would be kept off our page.

With that said, I understand that this is not the first warning you've been sent. Additional postings that bash others will result in removal from the group.

I appreciate your understanding in this matter. Thank you!

Marisilda
