One of my many directing projects has been the crazy fun new Sign Language series "SHUTN UP AND SIGN." (www.shutupandsign.com)

We're about to start on our 4th "Episode" which will teach the viewer to sign the Louis Armstrong song "What a Wonderful World" and, like so many others, have an Indiegogo campaign to finance it. (How RARE, you say!!!!) This one is a little different, however, because the perks you can get for "contributing" are worth more than your donation! You can get one or more of the dvd series for much less than retail, and even less than our currently offered discount on our website, since you won't be paying for postage!!

Please check out our campaign, and pass this link along to others! These are great gifts!
