I'm being attacked on Twitter and who ever is attacking me called me a retard. We talked about that in our interview. How I think a label like that is inappropriate. The Twitter attack occurred almost immediately after the interview. I don't know what is going on but I'm an actor not a singer. You also said something about the bible being propaganda. An end to abuse. Equality and freedom of thought and religion. As to Guns I don't want one in my house and I don't want to be forced to be around people who think first about killing someone before helping them. I won't however serve my parents who have abused me and have been doing everything possible to make my world revolve around them.
