she was connected to people who abused me on sets.

Carrasco last week said to the class they did not want a problem student. He told the class sometimes women are at fault for assault. One of the students with a blond curly hair came in to class looked over to me last week and made a comment about at least she is not crazy. I have the right not to be prelabelled like that.

I wanted to graduate this semester. I will not quit school. I want to finish the film productions. I am sick of being abused and manipulated or accused of being mental. Carrie lied to the police. I also showed to the police that Carrie works for the school foundation.

I am not crazy. I was not arrested and at one point said I wanted to leave. One of the security police said I could not. Drew told him I could take a dance class. No, I want to graduate and work in film and TV period.

Scientologists call people they do not like problems. I am not a problem. I am a good student tired of abuse.

Carrie should have gotten a letter not me. Ask the older student Julia? I told her on the bus after class last week I did not like that Carrie came over to sit where I was. I told Julia I did not want to work with her.

The letter I received to leave Carrie Finklea alone? I would not work with her. I sent it to Chavez however when security arrived the letter & my school ID disappeared. Some one took them.

In April of 2018 Santa Monica mailed me my digital media certificate dated Dec 2017 even though I had not been back on campus since March of 2017.

I came to you because Carrie was mean to me. Last week she came over and sat near me. Carrasco made a comment about not wanting a problem student. I want to be working on sets. Attached in my acting resume. Ive been training to be an actor where ever i can when im not ar SMC.

On the day of our presentations i get handed this letter. Today also Carrie was sitting with a blond girl. I kind of want to know who she is because last week in class i said my father thinks he owns me and white priviledge means being owned. Then i get these attacks. See attached. Nit sure if i am sending you all of it but i did not report the account yet. I want you to see them.

Last week we talk white priviledge.

Carrie alsoied to the police. She said we were in class together 2 years ago. She was in film 33 when i withdrew. I want to graduate with good grades nkt have carrie insinuate i wanted to be near her. Im not gay. I overheard last week Carrie tell drew she was going to send emails. I found out from police security that she complained about emails. I emailed her and in the end toldthe teacher i did not want to work with her. She toldthe poluce she does not respind to emails. If she got the emailsthen she knows i was upset with finding out she was connected to peolle who abused me on sets.

This is what is bothering me too. Blake Shields who i have been stalked and harrassed about for 3 years on Twitter. Well ive blocked everyone he works with to hope the attacks would stop in cluding 2 women who both are from Oregon. One of them apparently loved Ye Old Bar the one David Wayne works at. Blake knows me. He knew my name. He asked me out. Hes an actor. But he is also a man. We do not have royalty here and im not a bitch. Im tired of the back stabbing. Im tired of my life being monitored and judged for a guy who might have tried to cheat on me with his girlfriend back in 2005 but chose not to. Ive lost the best years of my life because im not dating. I want to be working. Im tired of being set out to sign for ice because an actor looks like blake. I realized that post one of the shoots. Even Stu commebted when i was standing out side to me, isnt there a shoot going on. Respect is not asumojpgim desperate for a guy and frankly im too professional to screw around on a set even when Blake would watch me working after he was wrapped. My acting career or a future doing acting is why im at SMC. It is why i wanted to work production. I do not want to work in the industry at all if i cant get justice for feeding Blake Shields ego.

This is why Im scared to work with anyone I think knows Blake Shielde and why Im upset. My stalker calls me a stalker.

I had breast cancer. Im a lawyer. I did workshops with a casting agent named Dan Shaner. He cast a show named "The Whole Truth" starting Murna Tierney a Breast cancer survivor for ABC. The show was about lawyers.

I started "stalking" the casting agent by doing workshops. I told Dan forst time i met him. "Does the Whole Truth need lawyers or actors with legal background because I am an actor with a legal background?" Dan would give his students either a few lines or 3 pages. I think it was his way of telling people who hed cast for under 5s and who he would cast for guest or more supporting roles. 2 workshops i did and he gave me 3 pages.

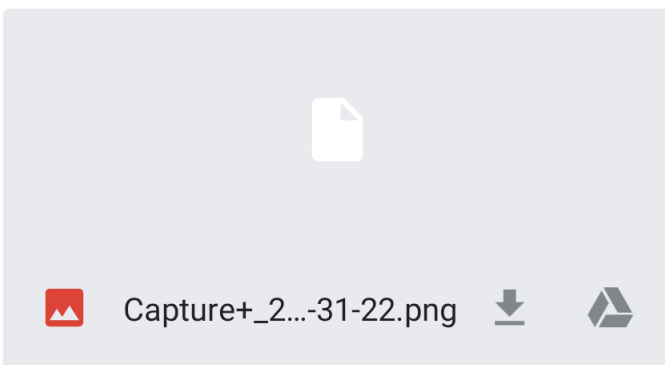

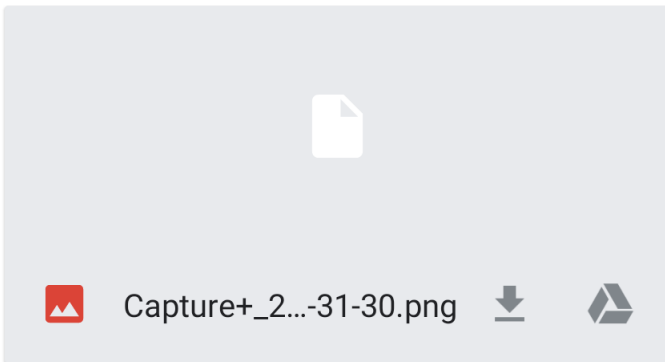

Murna Tierney had also worked with Sam Jaeger who knew me from Eli Stone but Sam was kind of snotty to me post Eli Stone...

Well they cancelled the show but not before casting Blake Shields. I had posted on my Twitter i wanted to work that show. That is the only time so far Blake has worked for ABC. Im creaped out. See attached. Note because of being sexually assaulted I did not want to see Blake acting. I did not want him nkt acting. I just did not want to watch him. Made me angry because I wanted a career not to be bullied because Blake and I had liked each other.

Hi guys! I am meeting with Professor Carrasco today to finalize everything. I do know that I need to add to the list a manican (preferably headless). If we don't have a manican then maybe we can find a large doll.

This will be wheeled down by one of the extras in the background. I want Alan to feel like his life is on the line. The wheeling down of a manican will represent he is in for some kind of torture.

YES i can edit. I will be at the meeting though I may need to leave early. I have somewhere I want to be by 4:30. I am trying to figure out logistics. Can you give me specific scenes you really want to see. I assume you especially want the scenes of women working and woman looking dreamy and woman cheering but if there is something very specific you want to see let me know. I am going to have to ask the lab the best way to down load the footage.

I also sent a message to my editing professor but if this is what you want. Are there any images you would like as well, because I can also add things and change the color tones. If there are symbols or images you want me to splice in. Like women power or something neutral even. I can jazz it up or just do straight cuts. In other words rather than cut just a minute from this I could also add some kind of symbols representing the "new order."

can easily do it. Does anyone have a copy of Michael Moore's film "Sicko" the movie that the footage you sent me is in. It might be easier to get the footage off a DVD. I need to know though if I put it on a flash drive can you project it or do you need a DVD?
