Listen woman, I am not a troll, not a bully & not a stalker.

You are describing yourself.

When I reported your Twitter account I did my research, I don't just report people without finding out for myself whether they deserve it, and you certainly do.

Stop making assumptions about me, I don't believe in any god or religion, all of them to me are cults.

I'm not in the entertainment industry and I don't work for Twitter.

I've only been on Twitter since September 2020 so I've not been 'harassing' you for years, but it does show that I'm just yet another person that is trying to show you up for the nasty bully that you are.

Also I think you'll find that all these different people have different styles of writing to show they are different people, we just obviously think & know the same things about you, which are facts that you've posted.

You putting all the evidence of what you've been doing for decade now, everyone's emails & messages in reply to your horrid emails & messages, anyone with common sense can get to the same conclusion that you have a serious problem with EVERYONE and you need help.

You do this bizarre linkage to people that if they know a certain person then they are guilty to you, and they deserve your relentless campaign of disgusting harassment, and that's just bullshit.

You have sent me hundreds of emails compared to me sending around 30 emails to you.

You are racist and just because you are a small percentage of Jew or Black doesn't make you an ally of them, you still slag them off, and yes you are a racist. You are trying your best to see if I am Black and/or a Jew, just so you can fit your narrative of them ruining your life.

Hey guess what, you're the only person that has ruined your acting career, and you've posted all the evidence on all your blogs and social media.

And I don't want to hear about your bleeding vagina, if you can't see how inappropriate that is then you're crazy, and I'm not a prude.

Stop being aggressively rude to your parents, anyone who reads your social media & blogs can see how many times you've threatened them, you are nasty.

The way you freak out at people just because they follow your social media, you don't know how social media works, good grief you idiot.

You go on about wanting to physically hurt people, that's frightening but you can't see it.

And I don't judge people on their looks or wealth, I judge people on if they are a good person or not, and you certainly are NOT a nice person.

You complain you're being silenced, what a fucking joke as you still have plenty of social media accounts and blogs.

Get a fucking life and stop harassing people you delusional, paranoid bitch.
