I am sorry that has happened to you; you need to report this. Ben Affleck can't do anything ,but going to the police just might.

Giving an opinion is different than telling someone what to do. You were not expressing an opinion. You were bullying. No one who is abused deserves to be abused more for being brave

Being a public figure has one job and one job only: to entertain. They are not here to fulfill your sick fantasies or to give out private information. If you think that you or anyone else have a right not to respect anyone's boundaries, then you seriously need professional help.
