I don't think about success, I work and don't expect anyone to help but take it if they do... Have faith and work hard on what your heart believes is true. I love to help others but it's a two way street I'm trying to help/touch others in a larger way at one time... Moofaces.com .... Tavares ... To whom much is given much is requested. Nick Cannon's favorite..Focus Focus.....Patience ..... Understand my plan is to help

THIS IS SO TRUE- and very me. I am not weird- I'm just smarter than you and an introvert- deal with it. <http://www.carlkingdom.com/10-myths-about-introverts>

10 Myths About Introverts | CarlKingdom.com :: Writer. Director. Artist.
www.carlkingdom.com
Myth #1 - Introverts don't like to talk. This is not true. Introverts just don't talk unless they have something to say. They hate small talk. Get an introvert talking about something they are interested in, and they won't shut up for days.

Laura Ann Tull via Danny Larios
Finally a sane priest. I like the Catholics. Catholics have walked through the flames of history and wars and grown up allot. Trick is for the Church to not back slide into the dark ages of belief. Id actually go to this guys church for a visit. Im not going to be the regular goer though to any church. Not my thing and I firmly believe we are all lives of value. Enough said.
