I agree. People keep saying it is changing but more money is not enough. The rape culture needs to die. Women need to be allowed to have careers. Instead of being worried if a woman is in a relationship how about caring about her profesional reputation. How about letting her have a purpose beyond wife mom and letting it be her choosing. women should not disappear from 30 to 50 in film amd TV. We are 51% of the population and we matter.
