

Trump Religious Dogma and Putin the Fear Connection

The reason Trump & Putin being in bed together is not upsetting some people may be religious dogma and fear of Islam. Putin passed some of the most restrictive religious laws in Russia since the USSR. This is favorable to people afraid of extremism in religion and terrorism but the big picture is much scarier.

Russia is effectively pro Christian. Even its acts toward the gay community demonstrate its conservative religious view. Many who support Trump are pro Christian and anti Islam. In the process though I do not think the marginalized groups see how nightmarish that kind of fear could be if it grows to include them. I'm buddhist and I've been told i have to associate with Trump lovers. Does that mean I can not be with liberals who think the way I do? Does that mean I do not have a choice of who to love? Does that mean I can not be with SAG AFTRA because I dared to associate outside a group I was born into when I have never associated or liked my own family and their beliefs?

I remember a guy I knew back in 2005 had a problem with me liking an actor Blake Shields. Now I suspect it was due to issues he had, but also with him being Jewish. I have spent over a decade being stalked and abused because a Jewish actor asked me for drinks. Nothing happened. I wish it had because maybe everyone would know I do not put up with men, even an actor trying to use me, push me to have sex, and no guy does not respect me by trying to be with me without protection or having spent time getting to know me. And I do not chase men because in the end a career is more important to me and autonomy. I'll never follow the man in my life, if there was one, completely because I like individuality and respect that. Too many haters in our society today do not. I'm sick of people not getting I was happy alone and working on sets and want that life back more than a job so I can afford to buy a house and get married. Blake Shields knew that in 2013 so all the attacks, the games with the Union, all seem to be the acts of narcissists, not acts to make me do the right thing.

I have spent most of my life having friends not like my christian family because I saw there bigotry as ignorant and hateful. I've spent the last two years being attacked by someone telling me my chakras were messed up. I get comments about how I should have a job. Well I was working toward a career and wanted that more than a husband, so you stopped me working sets to make me get a job so I'd be marriage worthy? Um, im never going to want to marry if I hate my job and life. I'd hate Blake Shields if I had to have a job working 40 hours a week I hated that had nothing to do with the entertainment industry to support him so he could be an actor. Why I turned many extras who hit on me down. I had financial responsibilities I needed to work to solve, and using a man to solve them is not what I want to do.

How about letting us ugly women act? Yeah that is the other twisted aspect of religious conservatism. Anything outside perfection is scorned or seen as ungodly. Lets add tattoo and piercing as groups eventually who will be on the out list.

Thank you Republican jews with sag aftra also for taking my sanity away and not thinking I'm an educated woman who wanted to achieve things. Though at least one or two appear to be Hillary supporters I would argue since I was told I need to date lawyers, not actors, that the liberalism only goes as far as the surface to win fans. Ive noticed at least two people I know who are pro Trump have been icy to me since calling out Blake Shields & Assaf Cohen and demanding I have my rights back with the Union. Within 24 hours I am attacked online by a woman with a Jewish Maiden name who is Pro Trump and thinks I should be friends with Christians. I would date a liberal jew before I'd date a Republican Christian, in fact I'd never date a Republican Christian.

You do know if he teaches at Against the Stream they are atheist buddhists. But im a woman thetefore i have no right to be buddhist and be an actor.

I've Googled you. You aren't this big star that is being blacklisted. You're a bit player that can't accept your place. Not feeling sorry for your loss of your dream. You are not a nice person. I've read your posts and how you made a whole article about a woman that friended you. You tried to put down her lifestyle and religious views. Do you know what I saw? A lonely bitter woman that only accepts her own kind. Obviously it's not racism bc the woman was also white but it was hatred. You mocked Christianity saying you'd never friend someone like her bc you didn't want Jesus verses on your facebook. If you were a decent person, you would have just unfriended her. Hollywood isn't missing anything

Is it religion at the heart of Trump winning? Religion is not a part of running America. Yes this explains the number of pro jew Trump supporters too, until they realize under Trump they may be next. Washington & Jefferson wanted this to be a country where Catholics, Jews, humanists, quakers, and all could have freedom to have peace. I am disappointed in actors like Denzil Washington and terrified for the majority of America not into traditional christianity or religion at all.

Kayne West who recently met with Trump has similar Christian leanings. I'm terrified for the number of blacks who have nothing to do with the middle east and asians who are buddhist and muslim.

Lets not forget Asians. When it comes to Asians I suspect the dislike for China will lead to all being lumped together as being enemies to America as well, even though the Asian community in Los Angeles seems to be the most outspoken for Christianity. Just go to the heart of Hollywood Blvd and look at who is there telling people to find Jesus. Most of the times it is a little asian couple with a bull horn.

Eventually this could lead to hatred of the hindus as well for praying to multiple gods. (I'm not a fan of hindu culture that tells women who qualifies as marriage material and who does not and the necessity for family approval.) (Israel's Oscar Nominated film made me furious but that may be for another blog.) All still deserve the first amendment.

Terrorists deserve jail time and deportation. But a religion is not an act of terrorism. Fear is the mind killer and this kind fear leads to to much killing not just of lives but of ideals, hopes, dreams, and a future of love and peace.
