Confession time. First time i saw you in Carrasco's class you looked at me in a way that said to me you had already heard of me. I have a gift for that. I also seem to know when someone is lying though i typically dont trust it when i should. You see your talent agency is the same as the following people:

Jamee Hong
Patrick Fabian
Tim Russ
Roger Lim
Brian Turk
John Carol Lynch

I have met all of them. I signed Patrick's ballot to be an officer of the union. Tim Russ mentored me. This is his review of my acting. <http://www.stik.com/p/arts+%26+entertainment/california.glendale/p/lauraanntull>

Roger Lim. I do not have an STD. I say that because of a weird conversation Roger and i had once. We used to talk at film festivals and events. Professionally. See attached. Photo taken at LA film festival 2011.

Brian Turk & John Carol Lynch I knew from Carnival. By the way I also worked on Deadwood. John Hawkes. Paula Malcomson. And a bunch of that cast knew me.

My ex Frank is also in the attached. We were together for 4 years though he set me a valentines day card in 2003 wanting me back so he may think the relationship was 5 years or 6. Frank was worth millions. He would not move to California in 2002 with me and he would not do acting with me.

I have a theater degree from McDaniel College. Masters in performing arts Management. John Fleck who also worked on Carnivale was one of the Finley 4. Yep. I got my 3rd Sag voucher on a movie called Crazy starring John Fleck...

I met Jamie Hong at the going away party for his agent who now lives in New Mexico. He actually gave me his number to study acting with him but i never had the money too.

Im sorry bit though you were nice to me yesterday. Im an actor. Period. I should not be policed because of Blake Shields who asked me out in 2005 on the set of Sleeper Cell. Jeff Olan the casting agent for background for Sleeper Cell and Greys saw Blake and i on set together. He actually said to me in 2009 at least i gkt o date him. He never contacted me for a date. Instead i got requested to work on Sleeper Cell and when ever i did Blake would come over to me and hang out and talk. I loved him but nothing happened. He knows how i felt. Ive also been furious with him. Im an actor. And without acting professionally i have lost all desire to achieve anything period. Im done a certificate in editing. Im almost done with film production. Butive been cut off from everyone i knew on sets and my union.

I have no desire no matter hoe much money i could make ifi cant keep fighting to act. I feel like shit. I feel ugly. And i look atthe pretty peoplebring respected and looking at me like im crazy for saying im an actor amd think they are trash.

I want to know what you knlw or i cant work with you. I wanted Blake but he knew that in 2006. He knew i cared about him in 2013 when he was on my FB.

I know what i want . i know where Blake is. Ive known since i went to see him in 2013 at a yoga studio he works in.. Im sick and tired of being terrorized to the point im getting sick and have stopped looking for work or caring. I will not care if i cant be an actor. My parents jave been tryingto make me quit since i was 19 and i went and got a masters.

Im also being repeatedly attacked on twitter. The more this person attacks the more i want to find away to be an actor or die trying.
